IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Mr. Edward P. Browning, Principal, and Mr. C. Dudley Bennett, former sponsor of the Class of 1952.

CROSSING THE BAR

ALFRED, LORD TENNYSON

SUNSET and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of time
and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

FOREWORD

1952 marks Winchester's bicentennial. More than two centuries ago, the first white inhabitants settled in the beautiful Shenandoah Valley, and the small community which is now Winchester had its beginning. Since then it has grown from log cabins and forest trails to a prosperous city noted for her apple industry and her many points of historical interest.

1952 marks an ending and a beginning for our class. We say farewell to Handley High School to become citizens in a larger community. Our high school career has provided the foundation upon which we may build our futures.

Because of the realization that Winchester and its citizens have made possible our education and that most of us will soon become actively associated with the life of the city—the class of 1952 feels it would like to have a part in celebrating the bicentennial. We are, therefore, proud to adopt as the theme for our yearbook Winchester and the good citizenship which we feel it symbolizes.

DEDICATION

Because of your limitless understanding of the students and their myriad problems; because you were always willing to help us under any and all circumstances, we are indebted to you for the fine traits of citizenship you instilled in us. Because upon each of us you made a deep and lasting impression which we will carry with us into the future, we shall endeavor, through our service and activity wherever we may find ourselves, to prove that the time and efforts you expended as our sponsor prepared us to take our places as loyal, useful citizens in a democratic community. Because it was you who provided the impetus which enabled us to move forward during most of our high school years, the Senior class considers it an honor and a privilege to dedicate the 1952 HANDLIAN to you, Miss Rinker, one of the finest persons we have ever known.

MR. MITCHELL

The class of 1952 feels sure that its high school years would not have been nearly as successful without the capable sponsorship of Mr. Mitchell. His careful guidance has instilled in us the value of accepting and carrying out our responsibilities. To Mr. Mitchell, our friend as well as sponsor, we say, "Muchas gracias y buen suerte."

MISS OVERCASH

To Miss Overcash we are very grateful. In our Senior year she has assumed the difficult task of learning to know and of working with the members of our class. No matter how insignficant or how difficult our problems, we have found her not just willing, but eager to unravel our more involved entanglements and to share with us the fun we had along the way. Miss Overcash has indeed proven a source of inspiration and guidance.

SENIOR SCRAPBOOK

June 13 The Senior girls broke an old tradi-ion; Room 22 100% G. O. before Room 24.

Sept. 10 Room 24 valiantly tried to defend its honor and were 100% G. O. on the first day of school.

Sept. 18 Our first Senior Class meeting. After the Editor-in-chief announced the HANDLIAN staff, we got—OUR RINGS! Now we really felt like Seniors.

Sept. 19 The Handley Band came (to the Charles Town Sesquicentennial), marched (in the parade), and conquered (first prize —$200).

Sept. 22 Our football team gave Mr. Browning a 13 to 0 victory over Wilson Memorial for his birthday.

Sept. 28 The "Angels" flashed back with the first assembly—a beauty contest, complete with a bevy of gorgeous damsels led by "Dagmar" Geiglein.

Oct. 5 A 21-0 loss to Lexington plus Co-captain Kersey's sudden appendectomy dampened our spirits.

Oct. 8 This morning Mr. Browning was taken to the hospital for an unexpected operation.

Oct. 10 No school today—teacher's meeting in Harrisonburg. Bravely holding back tears of regret, we descended on Harrisonburg to see Handley break a scoreless tie with a last-minute field goal.

Oct. 17 "Get your '52 HANDLIAN!"

Oct. 20 After a little deliberation, the Judges handed down a 20-14 verdict to unbeaten, unscored-upon Cilfton Forge.

Oct. 29 An era ended today with the sad news of Mr. Browning's death. We will always remember him as part of Handley.

Nov. 5 Memorial services were held for Mr. Browning in chapel.

Nov. 9 A group of persistent gals invaded skull practice to serenade the team. What next?

Nov. 22 Time ran out on the two-yard line; a last minute drive by a determined Handley team failed. Martinsburg copped the Turkey Day game 14-7. Handley's season record: 6 wins, 3 losses, second place in the league.

Nov. 30 Everyone responded wholeheartedly to an invitation to the fair, complete with ring-tossing and clowns, and made the G. O. dance a roaring success.

SENIOR SCRAPBOOK

Dec. 16 Winchester received its annual Christmas present from the pupils of the city schools—the beautiful Christmas Concert.

Dec. 19 Two members of the Class of '52, Leslie Miller and Jack Carr, won first and third prizes respectively, in the WSVA "Voice of Democracy" contest. Mrs. Garrabrandt didn't do so badly, either.

Dec. 21 Temporary parole today as, amid shouts, cards and presents, school closed for the holidays.

Dec. 31 The night that everybody went out in 1951 and came home in 1952.

Jan. 3 In spite of a certain unwillingness of our eyelids to stay open even with props, most of us found our way back to school.

Jan. 25 Amnesia ran rampant as exams began.

Feb. 1 At last we dared breathe again—exams were over! But even more important, we gathered the '52 Handlian in our arms and took it to the printer.

Feb. 8 Fifteen lucky bandsmen took off today for All-State Band.

Feb. 13 College Day—when the studious interests of some of us finally came to the surface.

Feb. 15 The Seniors and many lower classmen dressed up in their bibs and tuckers tonight and glided along the floor at the Senior Dance.

Feb. 22 A day-long celebration marked Winchester Charter Day.

Mar. 7 Take a play; add ten amateur actors; mix well on an open stage before a full house; finish off with a heaping tablespoon of laughter per person; and you have our Senior play, "Nothing But the Truth".

Mar. 21 The Library Club temporarily shed its bookish air for a gala party.

May 1-2 Another Pageant as we played host to thousands of visitors. The Band shone as usual in both parades.

May 23 Music charmed the savage beast and several hundred civilized people, at the Handley Band's Spring Concert.

May 30 To pass or not to pass; that was the question. Finals!

June 6 The last exam was today, so it's all over but the shouting. Even exams were forgotten as we swayed gently (or not so gently) with our favorite beau or gal at the Junior-Senior Prom.

June 8 At Baccalaureate tonight we realized how fortunate we were to have you, Handley, for our Alma Mater.

June 9 Senior Banquet. The Prom that followed put a grand finish on one terrific weekend. Some of the supposed eagerness for graduating rubbed off, and quite a few wet eyes were noticed when the Seniors sang the Alma Mater for the last time as Handley students.

June 10 THE NIGHT—the end of twelve long years in the pursuance of knowledge. Somehow they didn't seem as long or as hard to us as we walked across the stage, diploma in hand.

CLASS POEM

Our Guide

You took our tiny hands and guided us
Across your vast, green lawn,
Beneath the curtsying pines and stately oaks
And lacy blossom trees,
And up your mighty stairs you led us, 'til
We paused before your door
To turn and gaze upon the journey we
And many more before us, too, had trod.

And then your massive portals spread for us,
And we were ushered in,
Into the midst of skillful, helping hands
And shining, smiling eyes.
We were but children then, unsure, unwise;
But through the rapid years
You came each day to guide our stumbling feet
With wisdom and with tender, thoughtful love.

The days are swift, and soon our clinging hands
Will slip from in your grasp;
And you will turn our still uncertain feet
Toward new and steeper paths;
But we shall carry all that we have learned,
Not from some tattered book,
But through the joys and sorrows, we have shared
With you, our Alma Mater, childhood's friend.

We'll ne'er for-get the days we've known with-in your cher-ished walls,
The joys and sor-rows we have shared with you through-out the years,
Our child-hood voi - ces ring-ing clear, still lin— ger in these halls.
Re-turn to us with - in our hearts, as grad— u-a-tion nears.
Just mem-o-ries of yes-ter-day, Days that soon passed by,
Those hap-py, sad and ten-der days—At Hand - ley High.

Each spring students who show outstanding literary ability are chosen to represent Handley in the District Literary Contest. Handley has a right to feel proud of her literary teams, especially when they make as fine a showing as they did last year.

1951 LANGUAGE TEAMS

Latin I
Suzanne Rosenberger
Judith Blum

Latin II
Sarah Getzendanner
Katherine Clark

Latin III
Betty Lou Kendall
Ann Arthur

Latin IV
Mary Martha Eisenberg
Diane Hunt

Last year Handley participated in the State Latin and Modern Language Tournaments. Highest honors went to Sally Getzendanner, who won first place for second year Latin.

SENIOR PLAY CAST

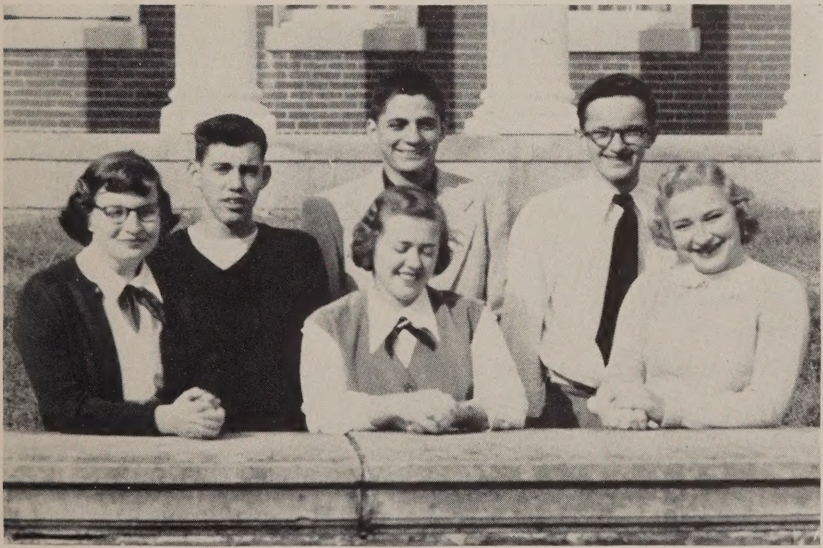
CAST

Robert Bennett	Fred Stine
E. M. Ralston	Jack Carr
Dick Donnelly	Bruce McFadden
Clarence Van Dusen	Robert Bumgardner
Bishop Doran	Beverley Whiting
Gwendolyn Ralston	Peggy Keller
Mrs. E. M. Ralston	Helen Boyd
Ethel Clark	Betty Kendall
Mable Jackson	Shirley Long
Sable Jackson	Natala Russell

First Row: Kendall, Boyd, Keller, Long. Second Row: Carr, Bumgardner, Stine, Whiting, McFadden.

In March the Senior Class presented the comedy, "Nothing But the Truth". Bob's struggle to tell the whole truth for twenty-four hours, Van and Mr. Ralston's unscrupulous attempt to make money were surpassed only by Mable and Sable's ability to throw everything into confusion. The success of the play made each member of the cast and production committee feel the hours of hard work had been worthwhile.

JUNIOR PLAY CAST



CAST

Magnolia	Betty Peer
Mrs. Norris	Helen Boyd
Elizabeth Norris	Carolyn Duncan
Danny Norris	David Rickard
Steve Riley	Bruce McFadden
Ted Harris	Warren Larrick
Martha Rushton	Shirley Long

Boyd, Rickard, Peer, Larrick, McFadden, Long. Not in Picture—Duncan.

Do you remember Magnolia's red satin dress? her exciting romance? the rivalry between a soldier and the sailor for the attention of Elizabeth? Of course, you do! All of these were laugh-provoking scenes from our Junior Play, "Magnolia Blooms".

HANDLIAN

The Seniors composing the HANDLIAN staff have diligently striven to produce a year book depicting the life and activities at Handley during the past year.

are these "the best years of your life"?

Parents often say they are, but there can be plenty of good times ahead.

Especially if you get a good job, doing interesting, important work with the kind of people you love to work with. Many high school girls find exactly that at the telephone company, after graduation.

So when you finish school, stop in and see us. You'll probably find a job you'll really enjoy at good pay with regular raises.

Sometimes it is the nature of a craft to create an unbreakable tie between itself and the worker in that field, a heart attachment equal to lifetime devotion. One familiar example is PRINTING. Once editor, once compositor, or pressman catches the spirit of the shop, the spell is seldom broken. Like the odor of a camp fire, or a whiff of salt air, the beloved tang of printer's ink, symbolical of a great profession, gets into your heart and soul. School Annuals, Magazines, Newspapers and Special Printing, all smack of it. It is an invisible link that binds all intelligence together. It is the stimulus for creation in business or romance. This craftsmanship, this devosion to service and alertness to business needs, has nourished and developed enormous industrial vitality and whichever way the course of the future runs, the printer will always find himself able to adapt his helpfulness to new opportunity.

YEARS OF EXPERIENCE HAVE TAUGHT US! PRINTING PAYS US ONLY WHEN IT PAYS YOU!
